Senior Tax Manager

Erik Kramschuster, CPA/PFS, CFE, is a Senior Tax Manager with Henssler CPAs & Advisers, LLC, an affiliate company of Henssler Financial.

Mr. Kramschuster joined the firm in September 2023, providing tax planning to businesses, individuals, and trusts; reviewing returns prepared by staff, and providing businesses with operational advice and monthly bookkeeping. Additionally, he prepares tax reviews for potential clients, assists in tax planning, and provides advocacy before federal and state organizations for clients, as necessary. Mr. Kramschuster will also help mentor and develop our team of Tax Consultants.

Holding the Personal Financial Specialist (PFS) credential, Mr. Kramschuster has additional expertise in comprehensive financial planning, including retirement, estate planning, risk management, and investment strategies. He develops holistic financial strategies for clients that consider their full financial picture, including budgeting, cash flow, debt management, and tax strategies.

As a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), Mr. Kramschuster is skilled in detecting, preventing, and investigating fraud using his thorough understanding of financial transactions, legal aspects of fraud, and investigative techniques. He assists businesses in identifying fraudulent activity, conducting detailed investigations, and developing strategies to safeguard against financial misconduct.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Kramschuster was Manager at Rollins Financial Advisors, LLC, where he managed clients' tax compliance needs, forecasted tax and business issues, explored tax planning opportunities, and performed audits and reviews.

Mr. Kramschuster earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting and his Master of Accounting from Georgia Southern University. He is a Certified Public Accountant, Personal Financial Specialist, and a Certified Fraud Examiner.
