

John W. Dickson III, CPA, CFP®, CVA

Tax Partner

John W. Dickson III, CPA, CFP®, CVA, brings more than two decades of experience to Henssler CPAs & Advisers, LLC, an affiliate company of Henssler Financial. In early 2019, Mr. Dickson acquired an ownership interest in Henssler CPAs & Advisers, LLC and P.T. Henssler CPA, LLC.

Mr. Dickson's experience is concentrated in tax planning and compliance for corporations and partnerships, working with closely held entities in the professional services, manufacturing, technology, transportation, construction, and real estate industries.

Mr. Dickson aims to develop long-term relationships with clients by emphasizing a conversational approach for adding value for clients. By taking advantage of ongoing tax law changes and tax planning strategies, he assists clients with minimizing their overall tax burden as well as addressing the individual tax needs of closely held entity owners. Mr. Dickson analyzes financial circumstances and helps clients manage risk by giving relevant perspectives that lead to informed decisions. As a valued business adviser, he works with clients beyond just tax compliance as a strategic partner.

As a Certified Valuation Analyst accredited through the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts, Mr. Dickson is particularly qualified to provide business valuation services. His extensive training and experience in accounting for small businesses and financial analysis provide Mr. Dickson with an excellent background for dealing with the complexities involved in providing valuation services. As a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® Certificant, Mr. Dickson has an expertise that allows him to execute customized financial plans that support clients' unique and complex needs.

Prior to joining Henssler, Mr. Dickson was a Senior Tax Manager with two Atlanta accounting firms. He has also worked in the corporate tax department of a national retail corporation, where he was responsible for the preparation and filing of state and local income tax returns, and the resolution of state income tax issues resulting from business operations.

Mr. Dickson also lends his expertise to multiple non-profit foundations, serving as Treasurer and board member for Ascensa Health at St. Jude's Recovery Center, which provides behavioral health care for addiction and co-occurring mental health disorders, and as a former board member for the Exceptional Foundation of Atlanta, a nonprofit providing inclusive, accessible, affordable programs & services for adults with disabilities.

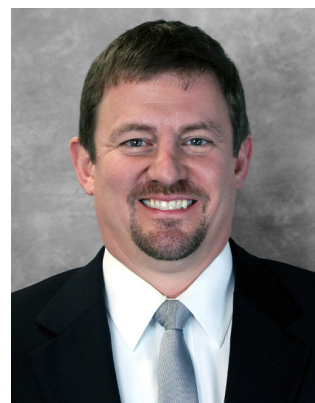

Mr. Dickson earned both a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Master of Accountancy from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. He is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Valuation Analyst, and a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER® Certificant.

Henssler Financial entities ("HF") shall mean and refer to any and all subsidiaries, parent or sister corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships or other entities or entity controlling, controlled by or under common control with said corporations or entities, including, but not limited to: G.W. Henssler & Associates, Ltd. ("GWH"), a federally registered investment adviser, d/b/a Henssler Financial; Henssler CPAs & Advisers, LLC; Henssler Capital, LLC; Henssler Property Management, LLC; Henssler Realty, LLC; Henssler Insurance, LLC; and Henssler Norton Insurance, LLC. Only GWH is an investment adviser.

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS (CPA) are licensed and regulated by their applicable state board of accountancy. Georgia requires CPAs to have a bachelor's degree or higher with semester hour requirements in accounting and business-related subjects, successfully pass the Uniform CPA Exam, and one (1) year of continuous qualifying experience in accounting. To retain a CPA license, holders must complete 80 hours of continuing education every two (2) years.

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Center for Financial Planning, Inc. owns and licenses the certification marks CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER®, and CFP® (with plaque design) in the United States to Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc., which authorizes individuals who successfully complete the organization's initial and ongoing certification requirements to use the certification marks.
