Breanna Reeves

Tax Administrative Assistant

2 Years of Tax and Accounting Industry Experience

Breanna Reeves is the Tax Administrative Assistant for Henssler CPAs & Advisers, LLC, an affiliate of Henssler Financial. As part of the Tax Administration Team, she supports the daily operations of the department, working closely with Tax Managers and Tax Consultants to ensure efficient workflow and responsive client service.

Her responsibilities include managing billing and payment processing, coordinating client communications regarding required documents and signatures, addressing client questions and concerns, and processing documents submitted electronically through the Tax Portal and in physical form.

Ms. Reeves also assists with the preparation and distribution of annual Engagement Letters, maintains accurate client records, handles confidential information, and supports workflow coordination and administrative organization to help ensure the department operates smoothly and efficiently throughout the year.

Before joining Henssler, Ms. Reeves spent eight years as a Crime Scene Specialist with the City of Atlanta and Forsyth County. She also worked as a Crime Scene Technician in both Georgia and Florida, where she processed crime scene photographs and physical evidence.

Ms. Reeves earned an Associate of Arts in Criminology from Hillsborough Community College and a Bachelor of Science in Sociology from Kennesaw State University.
